

No interest in standard solution?

Then help to create the world's most extraordinary facades with us!

For our head office in Brixen we are looking for a reliable, competent and committed person for

Estimator

AREAS OF RESPONSIBILITY

- Preparation of quotations for potential orders and estimation of budgets for already acquired projects
- Independent determination of quantities and production costs
- Preparation and creation of specifications and quotations
- Determining supply and delivery scopes
- Liaising with project teams on quotations and additional information
- Participating in contract and follow-up negotiations with clients
- Inquiries and preparatory clarification for bespoke technical solutions

REQUIREMENTS

- Qualification as design engineer, master craftsmen with corresponding experience or site manager in the facade industry
- Professional experience in metal and/or steel construction an advantage
- Ideally, experience of cost estimation in metal construction industry
- Solution-oriented approach
- Languages: very good German skills, English an advantage

WE OFFER

- Flexible working hours with time credits
- Flat hierarchy and appreciation of ideas
- Training opportunities for personal growth
- Various benefits, including fringe benefits
- We pull together: an open, positive working atmosphere unites us on the way to our goals