

No interest in standard solution?

Then help to create the world's most extraordinary facades with us!

For our office in New York (US) we are looking for a reliable, competent and committed

Site Project Manager

AREAS OF RESPONSIBILITY

- Technical organization of international facade construction projects, located in the USA
- Ensuring smooth construction progress
- Maintaining construction documentation
- Regular attendance at construction meetings
- Contact person for Clients, architects and specialist companies on site
- Responsible for managing schedule, quality on site and installation budget
- Implementing follow-up management
- Health and Safety

REQUIREMENTS

- Technical qualification
- Knowledge of sector an advantage
- Several years' experience as a Site Project Manager
- High level of commitment
- Ability to take on responsibility
- Very good English required (knowledge of German or Italian would be an advantage)
- Willingness to travel

WE OFFER

- Various benefits (PTO, 401k etc.)
- Flat hierarchy and appreciation of ideas
- Training opportunities for personal growth
- We pull together: an open, positive working atmosphere unites us on the way to our goals