

No interest in standard solution?

Then help to create the world's most extraordinary facades with us!

For our head office in Bressanone / Brixen we are looking for a reliable and committed person to join our

Supply Chain Management Department

AREAS OF RESPONSIBILITY

- Collaborating in the creation of project structures and ongoing monitoring of project schedules
- Definition and upstream control of critical project-relevant sub-assemblies
- Internal contact for all relevant material flow questions throughout the entire project period
- Optimising procurement and other task-relevant business processes
- Coordinating construction site call-offs in collaboration with site logistics department
- Support for the purchasing department regarding projects in the United States.

REQUIREMENTS

- Independent, structured and accurate working method
- Very good knowledge of MS Office programmes
- Good knowledge of German and Italian, English an advantage

WE OFFER

- Flexible working hours with time credits
- Flat hierarchy and appreciation of ideas
- Training opportunities for personal growth
- Various benefits, including fringe benefits
- We pull together: an open, positive working atmosphere unites us on the way to our goals